8. Project 53-2, CIA Regulation on Training for Specified Duty Assignments.

Proposed CIA Regulation on Training for Specified Duty Assignments in process of major revision with development of comprehensive policy statement to cover training of both new and on-duty personnel at various grades with various training and experience for various duty assignments. Upon completion, regulation will be presented to D/TR and DD/TR(G) for review and comment.

9. Project 53-3, Publications (Training Bulletin). The Vice President has completed his review and editing of his comments to the 9th Orientation Course, and his approved statement is in the hands of the DCI. Upon referral to S/PP, it can go to press. [] advised that the remarks of Allen Dulles, General Smith, and [] are being transcribed at the moment and will be forwarded to S/PP shortly. The remarks of these speakers will be issued as Bulletins.10. Project 53-4, Revision of CIA Regulation [] Proposed revision of CIA Regulation [] completed, approved by [] and presented to D/TR and DD/TR(G) for approval. Upon return to S/PP, regulation will be forwarded to [] for official promulgation.11. Project 53-10, Training Plan for the Office of Logistics. Draft of training functions of the Office of Logistics and their relation to the Office of Training completed, and in process of review by the Chief, S/PP, before presentation to the D/TR and DD/TR(G). [] advises that the Office of Logistics does not want any slots for the Logistics Conference, 16-19 March.12. Project 53-13, Glossary of Intelligence Terminology. Initial drafting of S/PP version is nearing completion, but conclusion of it and appropriate review and rewriting seem impossible by original deadline. Because of this situation, and because informal coordination indicates that others working on this enterprise are in a similar predicament, extension of the deadline to close of business 10 March is being requested.13. Project 53-14, NATO Seminar. Upon request of OCI, an additional slot was requested and approved by FSI for participation in the NATO Seminar. FSI advised that the Seminar would be attended by foreign nationals - one British Major General, a British Brigadier, and several high ranking French military members of the NATO Standing Committee. ~~In view of this situation, I&S was consulted as to the specific security briefing of Agency participants. The Chief, Programs Division, will conduct these briefings.~~14. Project 52-16, Training Problems of the PM Staff. As a result of conferences with the Training Officer of the PM Staff, it was learned that this Staff is reviewing job families and professional training patterns in order to administer more effectively the Career Service Program of that Staff as it relates to training recommendations in connection with the Personnel Evaluation Report, and also for the basic training of new personnel entered on duty. The Training Officer requested information as to how the PM Staff could receive the benefits of the Human Resources Program and Supervisory and Management Training within the Staff. This information has been communicated to the Chief, Management Training Division, who will establish contact with the PM Staff.
